

Visualizations: Research Firms with Most Ratings

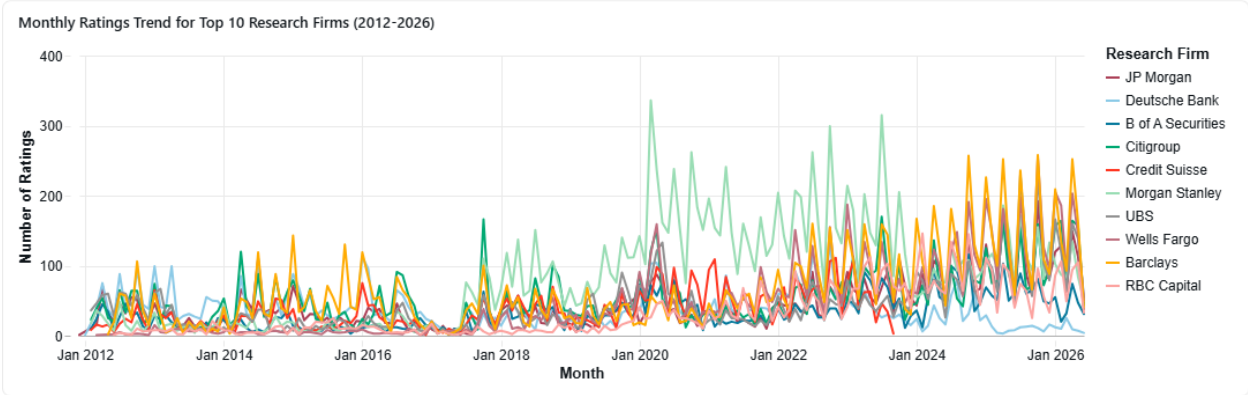

Here are the pie chart and line chart showing the research firms that issued the most ratings:

Pie Chart: Market Share by Total Ratings

The pie chart shows the relative market share of the top 15 research firms. Morgan Stanley dominates with 14,405 ratings (the largest slice), followed by Barclays (10,942) and Citigroup (9,238).

Line Chart: Monthly Ratings Trend Over Time

The line chart tracks monthly rating activity for the top 10 firms from 2012 to 2026. Notable patterns include a significant spike in activity around March 2020 (likely related to COVID-19 market volatility), with Morgan Stanley showing particularly high volume during that period. Most firms maintain relatively consistent activity levels, with seasonal fluctuations visible throughout the timeline.
